

COEX Special Event Series: 20th Commemoration of Genocide in Rwanda

Chantal Kayitesi

Rwanda genocide survivor and activist

Kwibuka 20
remember - unite - renew

Candlelit Vigil (not flammable candles)

Rwandans and friends of Rwanda worldwide every year in the month of April gather together to remember and honor their beloved ones who lost their lives through ethnic extermination.

Join us to:

- Honor A minute of silence to commemorate the victims
- Watch Kwibuka Short Film - 'Remember, Unite, and Renew
- Engage in Discussion with Chantal Kayitesi

Co-Sponsors:

Graduate Programs in Sustainable International Development and Health

INTERNATIONAL CENTER
for ETHICS, JUSTICE
and PUBLIC LIFE

Brandeis University

Chantal Kayitesi

Rwanda genocide survivor and activist

Chantal is a survivor of the genocide in Rwanda and a widow as a result. She has had to endure hardships complicated by her move to the United States with her 7-year-old son. With her previous education and work in Rwanda in Public Health she is completing an MA in Boston.

In Rwanda Chantal formed an association for genocide widows, acted as their president and program coordinator.

Thursday, April 10th, 2014

6:00pm–8:00pm

Zinner Forum

Refreshments will be served

Master of Arts in Coexistence and Conflict with the Support of the Alan B. Slifka Foundation

BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY

The Heller School FOR SOCIAL POLICY AND MANAGEMENT

Knowledge Advancing Social Justice